

Network Security: 2-Hours Briefing

Primary Product: Azure

What is it?

This is a service provided by Cloudica to help businesses understand the latest strategies and tools available for securing their networks on Microsoft Azure cloud environment. You will also gain valuable insights into how to use the latest security tools and techniques to protect your data and network.

Who is this for?

It is designed for IT professionals and business owners who are looking for an efficient and cost-effective way to secure their networks.

Network Security: 2-Hours Briefing

Primary Product: Azure

What are the benefits?

The benefits of this service include:

- improved security for your network
- reduced costs
- improved performance
- enhanced scalability

Outcomes of the briefing

- a better understanding of Microsoft Azure security and its capabilities,
- increasing your confidence in your security and networks,
- developing an understanding of the best practices for securing your data and networks,
- a summary of the key takeaways from the session and an action plan for implementing the security strategies discussed.

Steps and Agenda

- An introduction to Microsoft Azure security.
- A tour of the available security tools.
- A discussion on best practices for network security.
- An overview of the latest strategies for protecting data and networks.
- A review of the steps for safely configuring and deploying a secure network.